THE CREST

1963

Presented by the

Senior Class

Volume Nine

St. John High School

Dedication

To one whose years at Saint John's are just beginning,
To one whose planning will affect our parish for many years to come,
To one who has dedicated his all to our spiritual guidance,
To one whom we deeply respect —
We, the Class of 1963, gratefully dedicate this, the Ninth Volume of The Crest, to our esteemed Pastor —
The Reverend Joseph Ignatius Schill.

His Holiness
Pope John XXIII

Building a new image of the Papacy: Pope John XXIII delivers a blessing from his portable throne, as he begins the fifth year of his reign, October 28. Pope John, 81 has revealed a highly individual approach to the Papacy.

The Most Reverend
George J. Rehring
Bishop

Silver Episcopal Anniversary
1937—1962

"May Heavenly grace, by which all things are accomplished and difficult things made easy, be with you; may its bountiful help give you the physical and mental vigor to continue the work of Christ, Our King and Savior, that you may complete the works you have so helpfully and generously begun."

— Blessing of Pope John XXIII

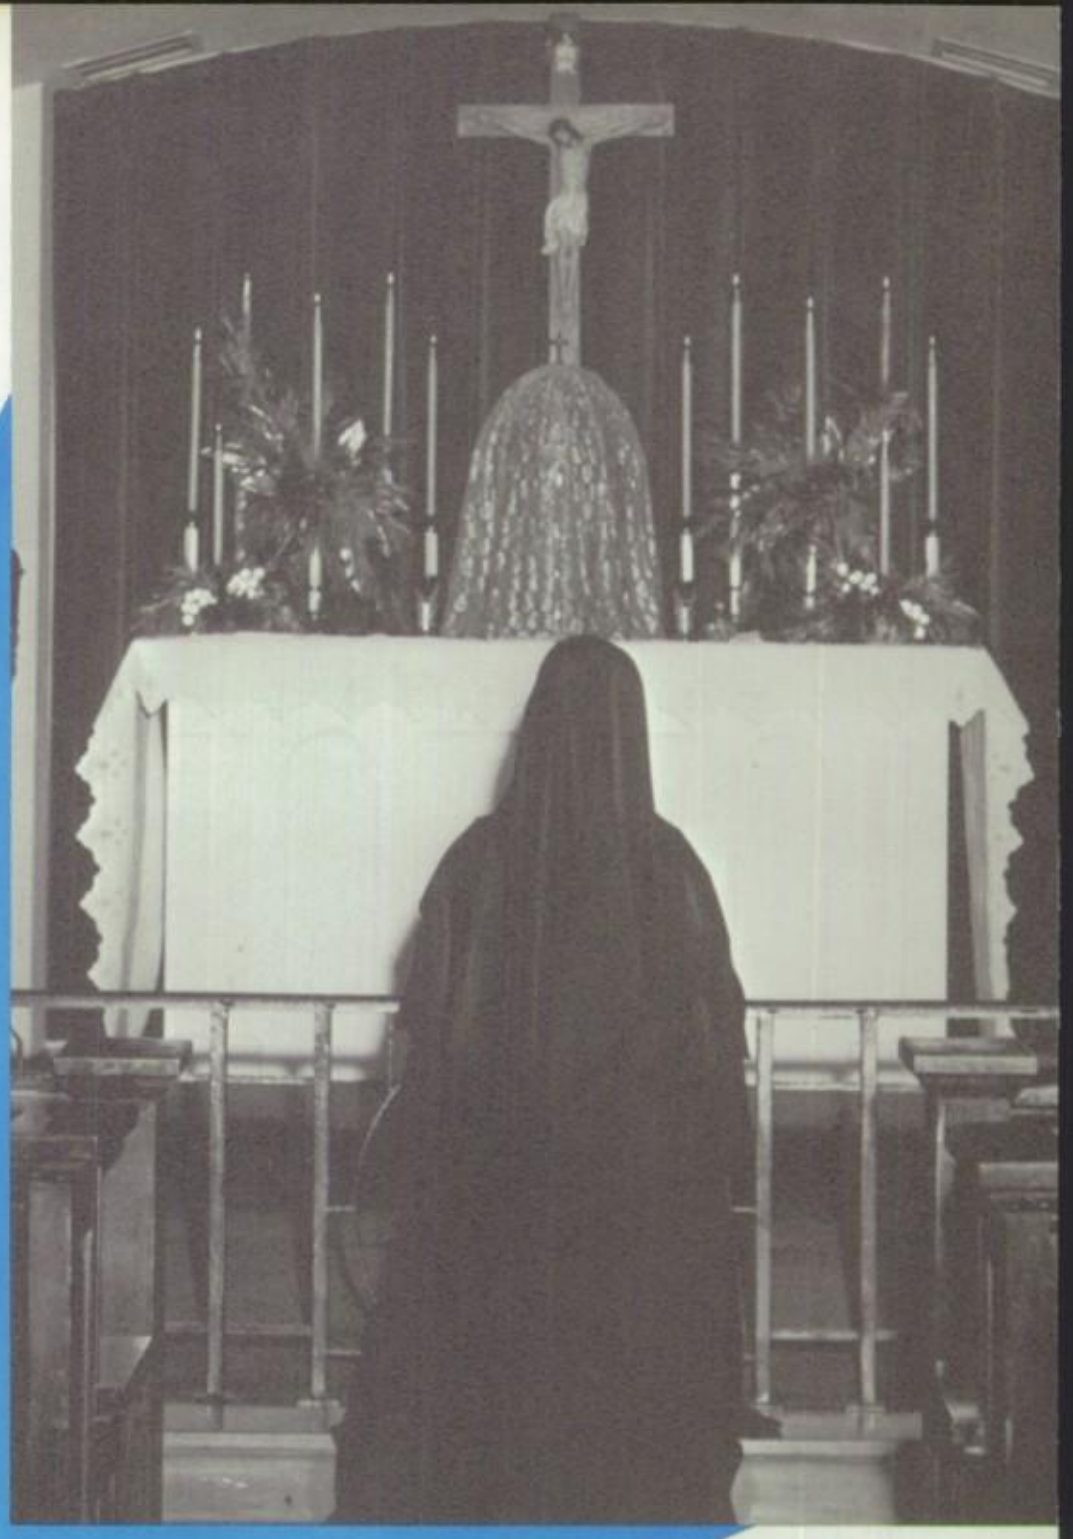
In Appreciation

To Sister Mary Rosella

As a Sister of Notre Dame . . .
You have been selfless,
Your untiring efforts have extended equally to all,
You have much in reserve to bestow.

As a Teacher at St. John . . .
You have been understanding!
You have made our daily tasks lighter by your jovial charm.

As our Senior Advisor . . .
We extend this tribute —
Your mark is upon us, Sister,
and
We are grateful!



To Mrs. Henry Weisgerber

For ten years of loyal secretarial service to St. John High School,

For your light-hearted sense of humor,

For you consistent boosting of the student morale,

We, the Senior Class of 1963, say,

"Thank you, Mrs. Henry Weisgerber!"

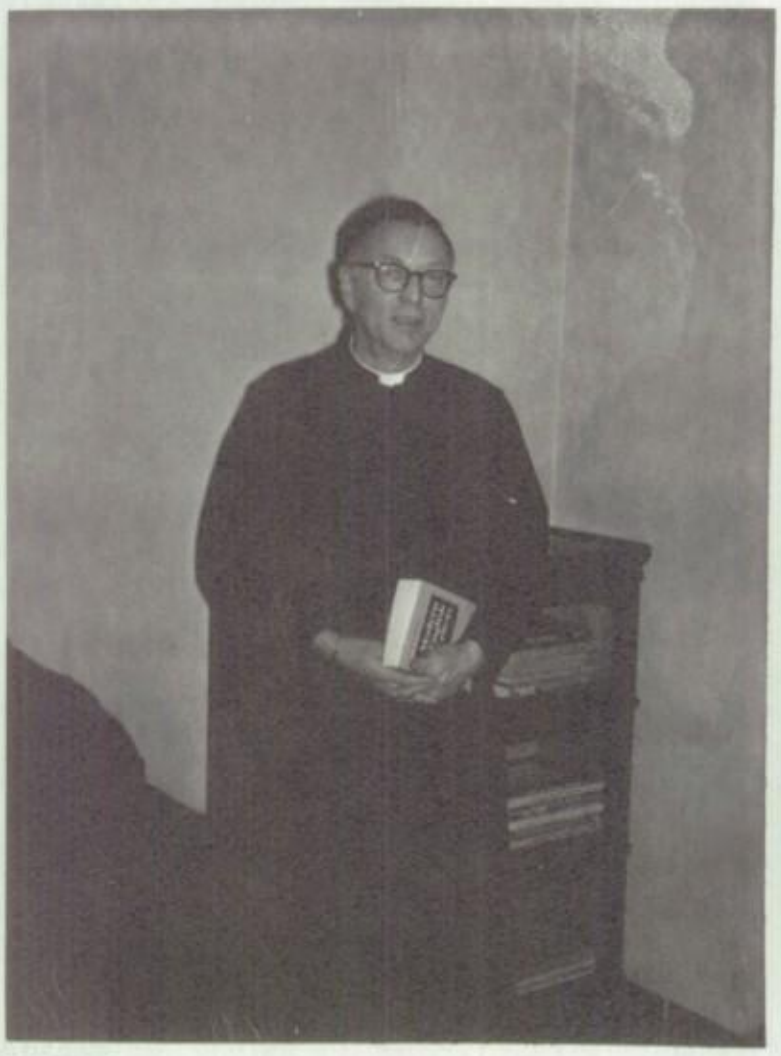
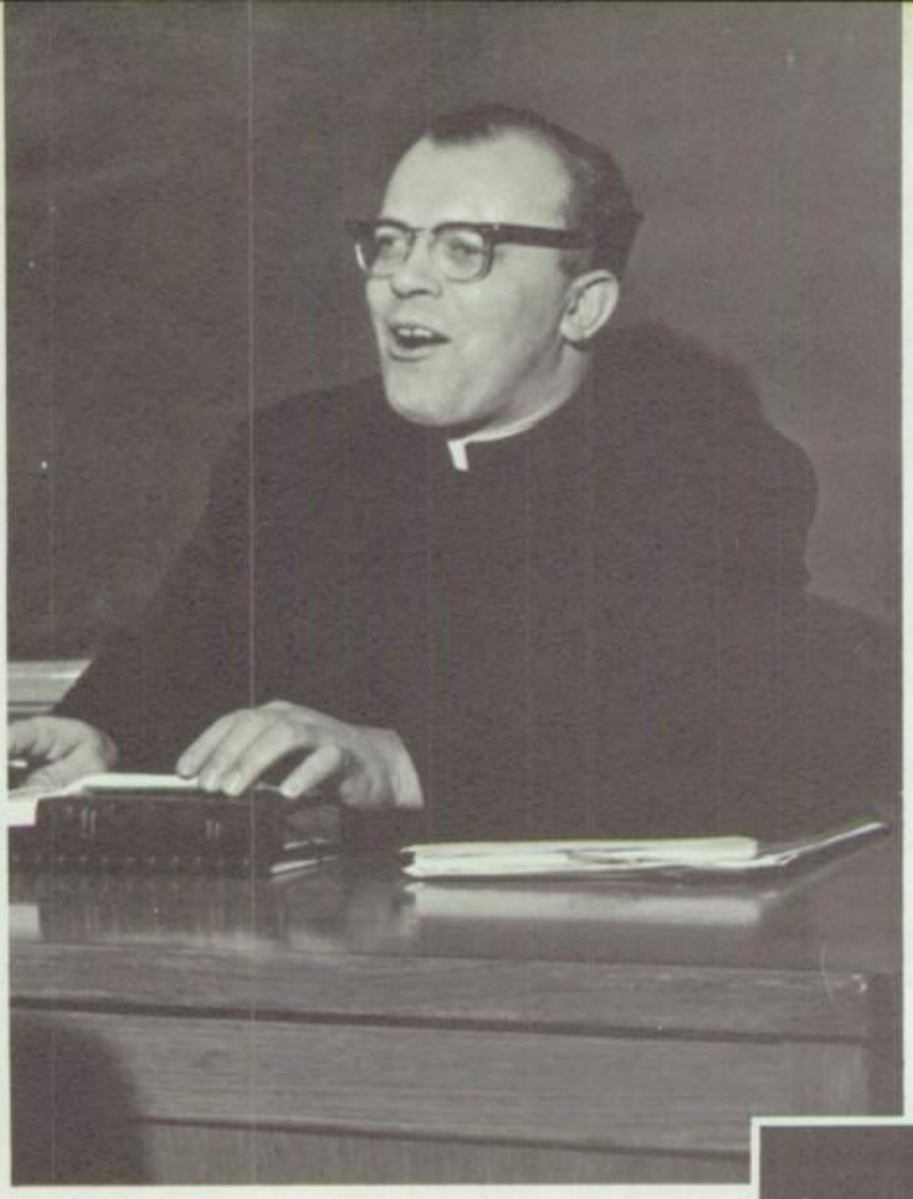
ACTIVITIES

Annual Retreat



Retreat comes but once a year at SJH. These are a few of the students who took advantage of time and opportunity to better themselves during the three-day annual Retreat, Nov. 19-21.

Mildred Gable and Helga Best, along with Gene Klaus, Jack Weichart, and Carolyn Burger confer with The Reverend Louis Stewart, S. J., 1963 Retreat Master; while Glenn Lause, Kathy Bendele, and Edward Pohlman make a selection of retreat reading.



Welcome back, Father! Joyously The Reverend Father Hanascek returned to the classrooms of SJH replacing the Reverend John Quenneville. Father has resumed the duty of teaching the Freshman religion classes.

Apostolic

Honor Students

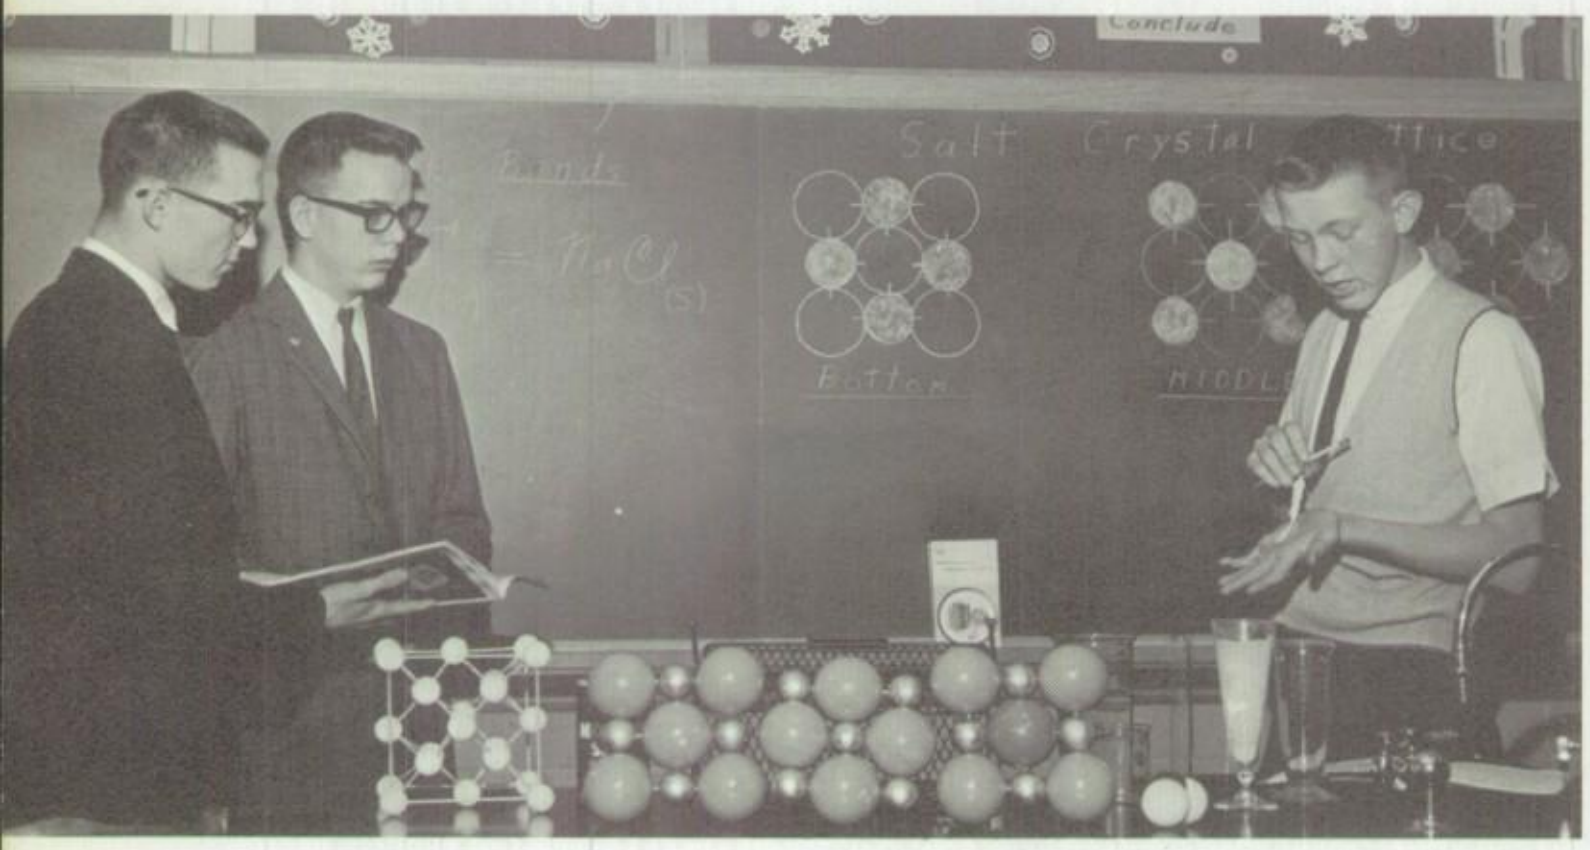
State Delegates

Expressions on the faces of Jeannine Wagner, Jack Weichart, and Marcia Hoersten seem to indicate that they had a really memorable time this summer. Jeannine and Marcia attended Girls' State at Columbus during the week of June 16; Jack attended Boys' State at Athens, Ohio, during the week of June 11.

Proudly the alternates of Girls' and Boys' State are recognized for being summoned for uncalled duty. Mary Lou Kill, William Laudick, and Valeta Wallenhorst were chosen for this honor.

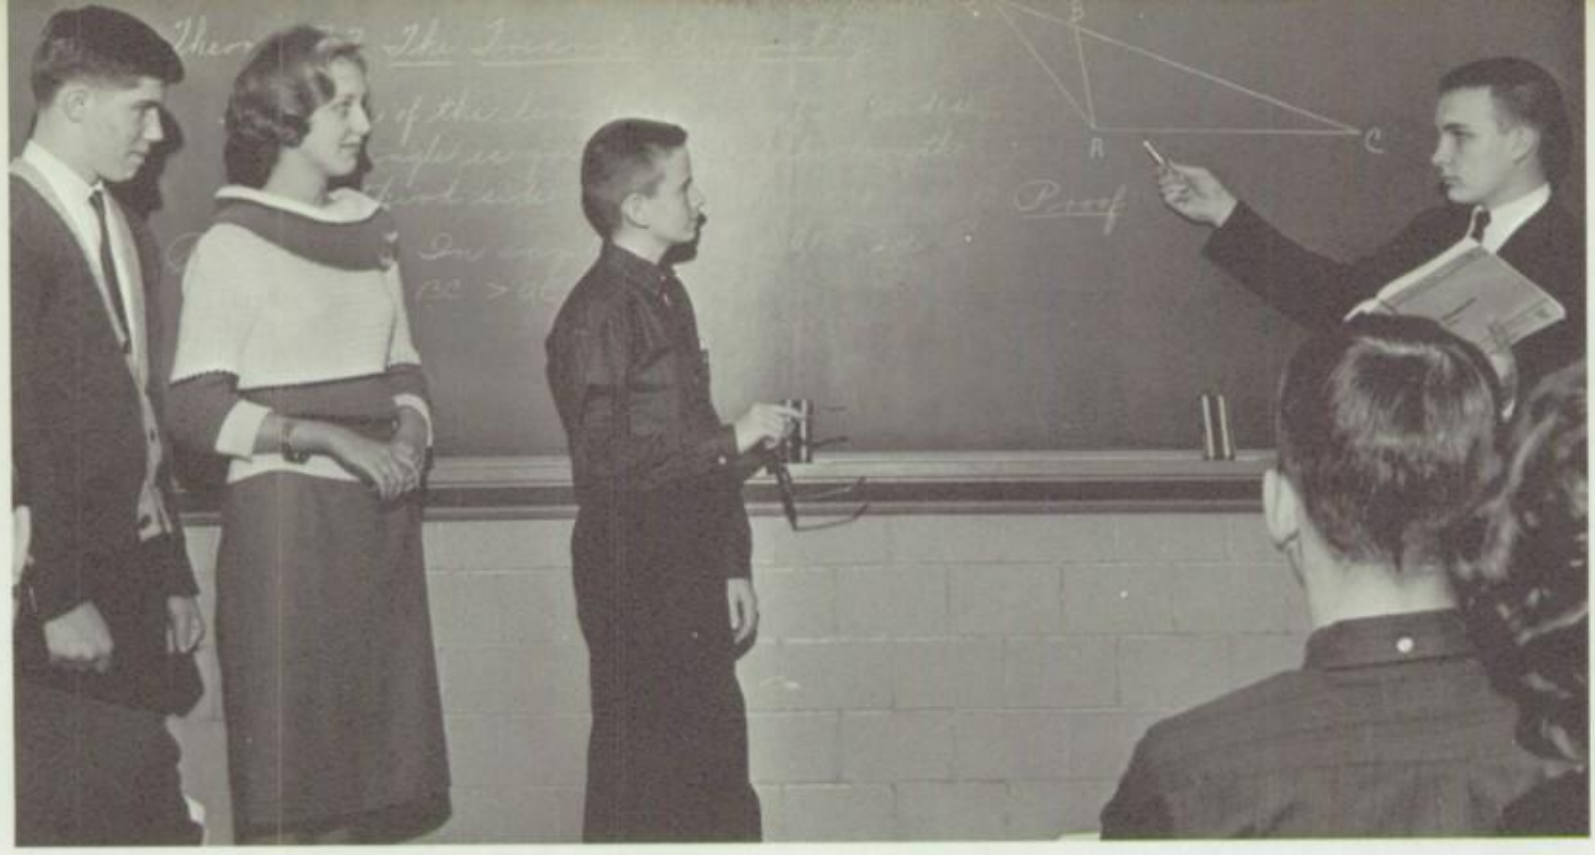
Physics students, Dennis Lause, Joyce Turnwald, and Joe Imber are using a Geiger counter to test the radio-activity of various materials and the effect of paper, lead, and aluminum shields.

Science



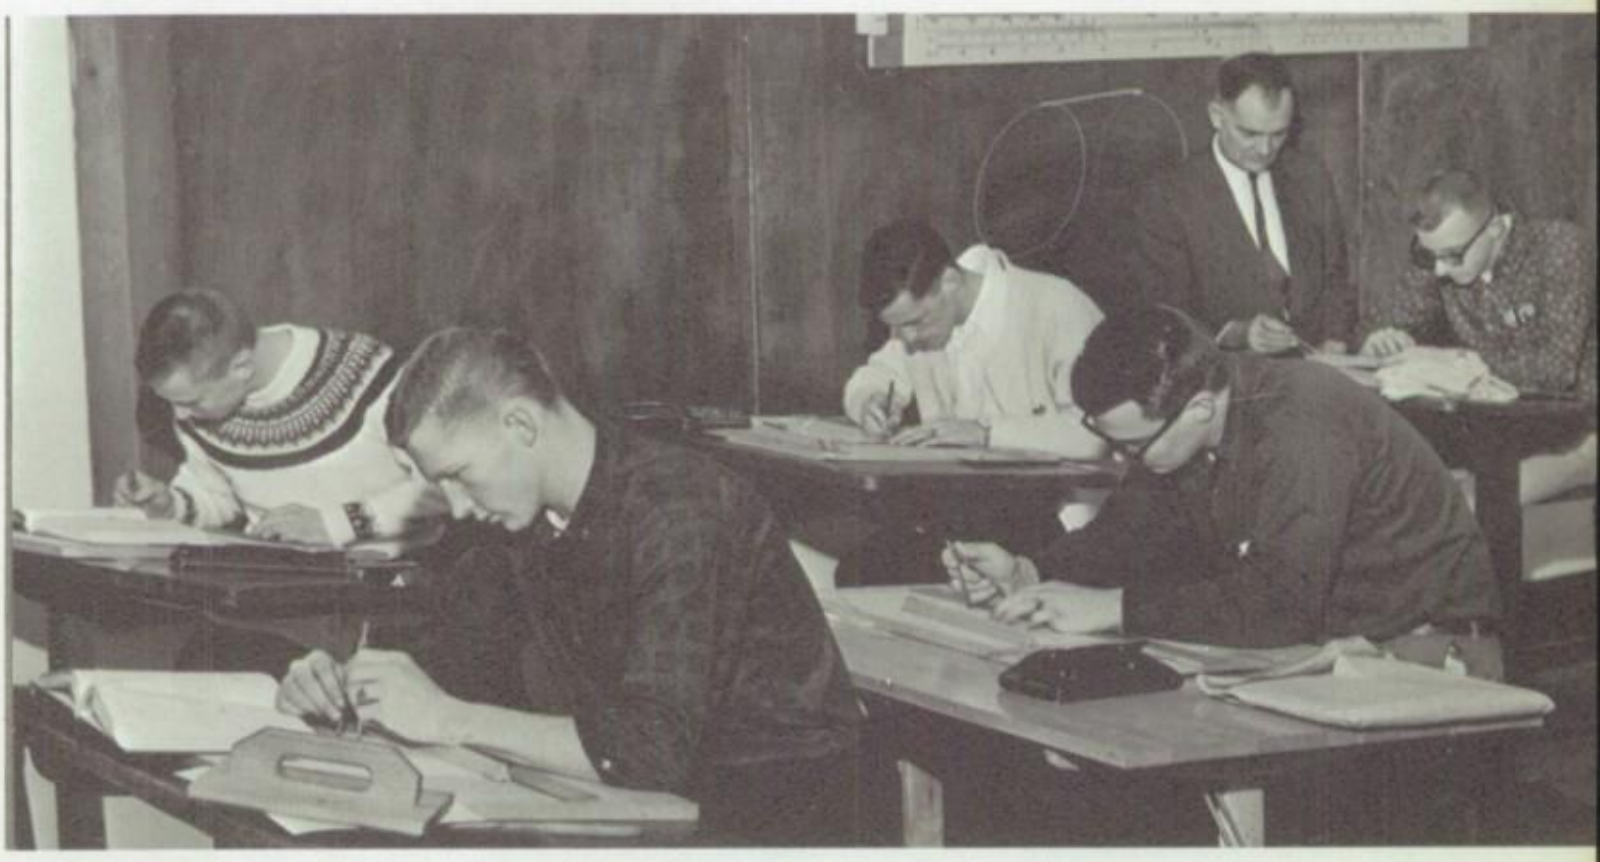
Many solids have delightful and wonderful forms. Here, Dennis Mann is illustrating crystalline structure to John Rupert and Mark Sever.

Microbes! Amoeba! Vorticella! Hydra! Paramecium! Vinegar Eels! What are these? Ask Pam Patton, Kathy Hollar, Lonna Grewe, Linda Klausing, Clark Ellis, and Arnold Osting, sophomore biology students.



How and Why? These questions on the Theory of Triangle Inequality are being discussed by Sophomore mathematicians: Mike Koester, Mary Weisgerber, Dave Weber, and Bob Williams.

Math



Under the guidance of Mr. Lloyd Smith, Danny Harpster, Don Osting, Ron Goergens, Mike Kriegel and Don Goergens are estimating lines and angles in constructing their individual projects for mechanical drawing class.

Home Economics

SJH's homemakers of tomorrow admire their floral arrangements. STANDING: Mary Wurst, Sharon Johns, and Dorothy Bockey; SEATED: Nancy Eversole, and Pat Hoffman.

Language

"Practice makes perfect," say the first year Spanish students as they practice verbs through an oral drill. Participating in the drill are Ellen Hesseling, James Menke, Mary Lou Williams, Dennis Warnecke, Kathleen Hedrick, and Kevin King.

An interesting procedure for developing poise and oral expression is through folklore, legends, and fairy tales. There are interpreted by the Freshman English students: Mary Wurst, Dan Moenter, Craig Griffis, Dave Will, Ann Siefker, and John Grone.

Juniors, Susan Nomina, Marilyn Scherger, Diane Grubenhoff, and Nancy Welch discuss the problem of world unity in regard to the Ecumenical Council, while the remaining class members listen attentively.

Religion

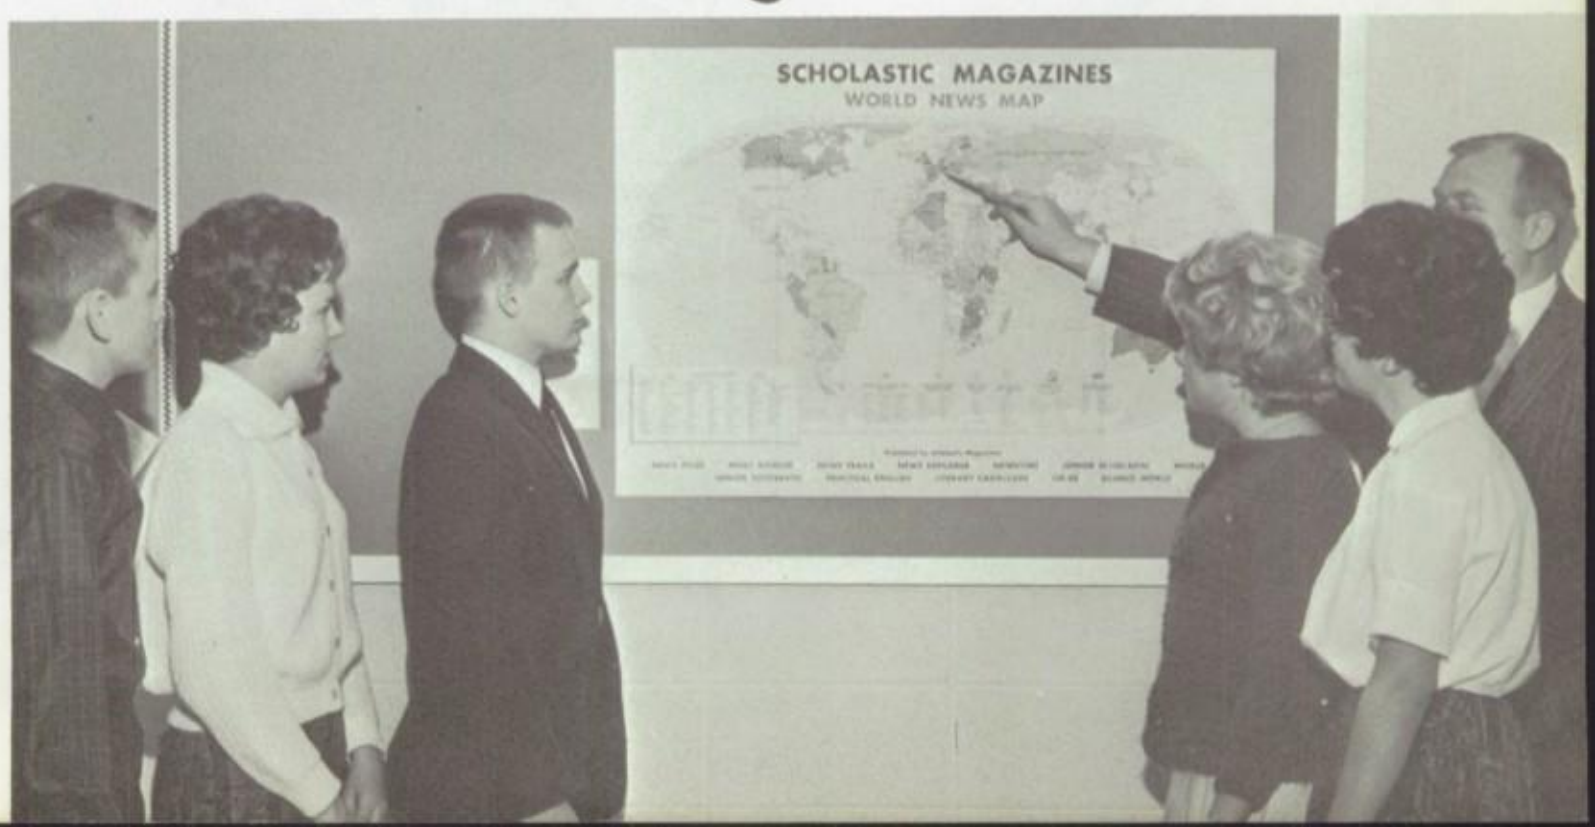
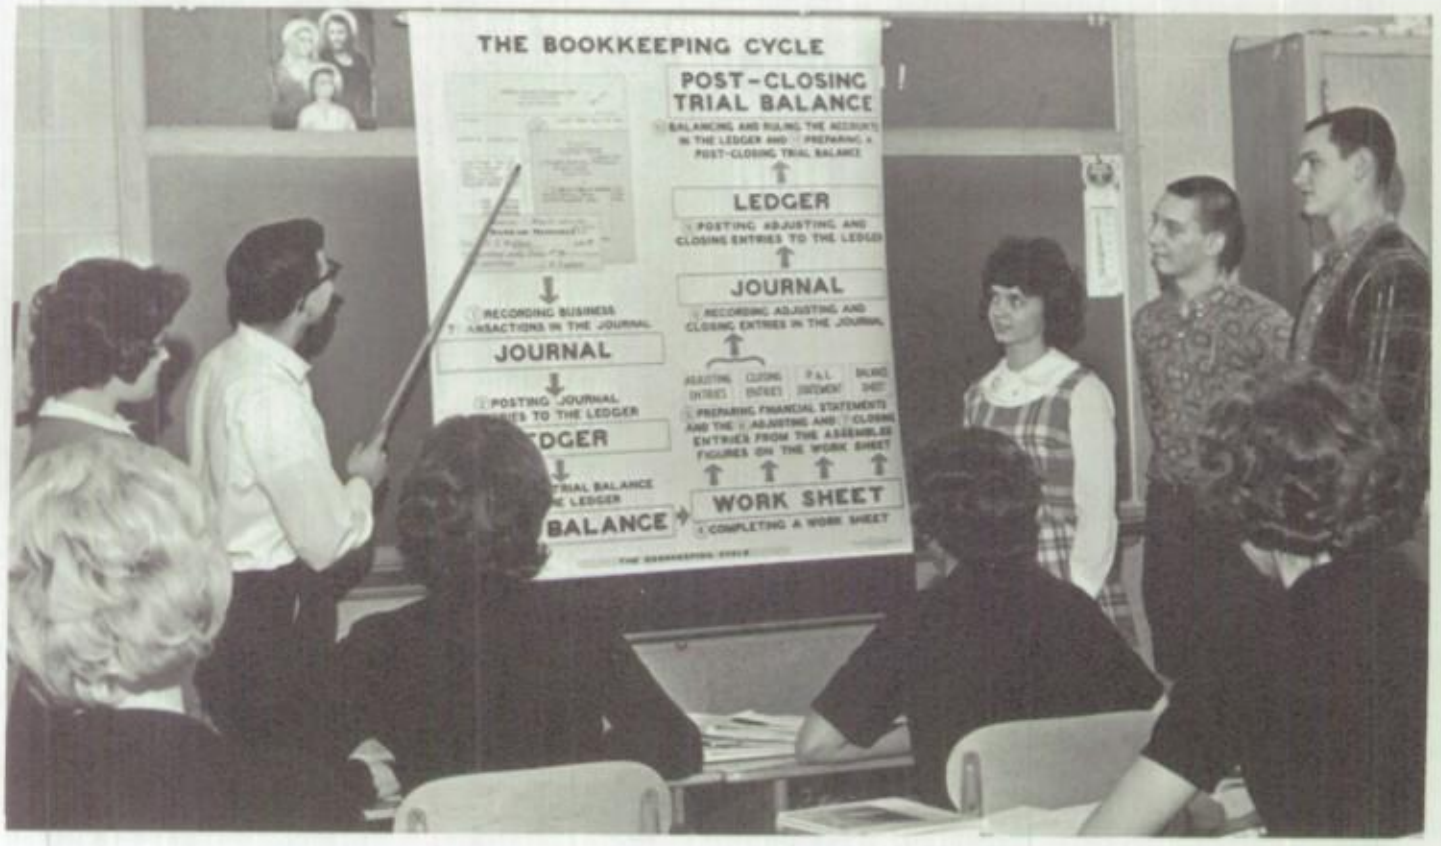
World History



Coach Edward Zalar informs David Weber, Edith Pohlman, Robert Williams, Carolyn Osting, and Linda Bair about the role of France in the Common Market.

Marcia Hoersten and Yvonne Boerger check as the Shorthand II students diligently strive for speed in dictation. ROW 1: Jeanette Gerschutz, Lois Bauldauf, and Alice Holdgreve. ROW 2: Judy Lauer, Jeannine Wagner, and Jane Kill. ROW 3: Paula Greulich and Virginia Altman.

Business Education



Observing John Etzkorn as he explains the bookkeeping cycle to the class are Diane Voigt, Diane Wurst Brickner, and Dan Cramer.

Girls' Physical Ed

Posing prettily, the girls of the third period Gym Class are eagerly awaiting for action and the GO-GO-GO signal from Mrs. John Shenk, girls' athletic director.

Students find practical physics interesting as well as practical. Mr. Olliver Sever, plant engineer, explains the details of the heating system in the boiler room to Roger Kimmet, Fred Kollsmith, and Michael Bockey.

A Man's World

Tinkering away to the trouble-point through all the grease and grime are Thomas Freund, Don Osting, and Bill Shumaker under the watchful eye of Mr. Lloyd Smith, vocational agriculture instructor.

TACKLE

Bill (Dusty) Laudick sweeps the end for good yardage against Sandusky Perkins to build up a 26—20 victory.

"Big girls don't cry" especially when they serve as cheerleaders for the great Jays. The big girls include: Mary Lou Kill, Diane Voigt, Jane Suever, Diana Pohlman, Barbara Calvelage, Jane Kill and Jane Suever.

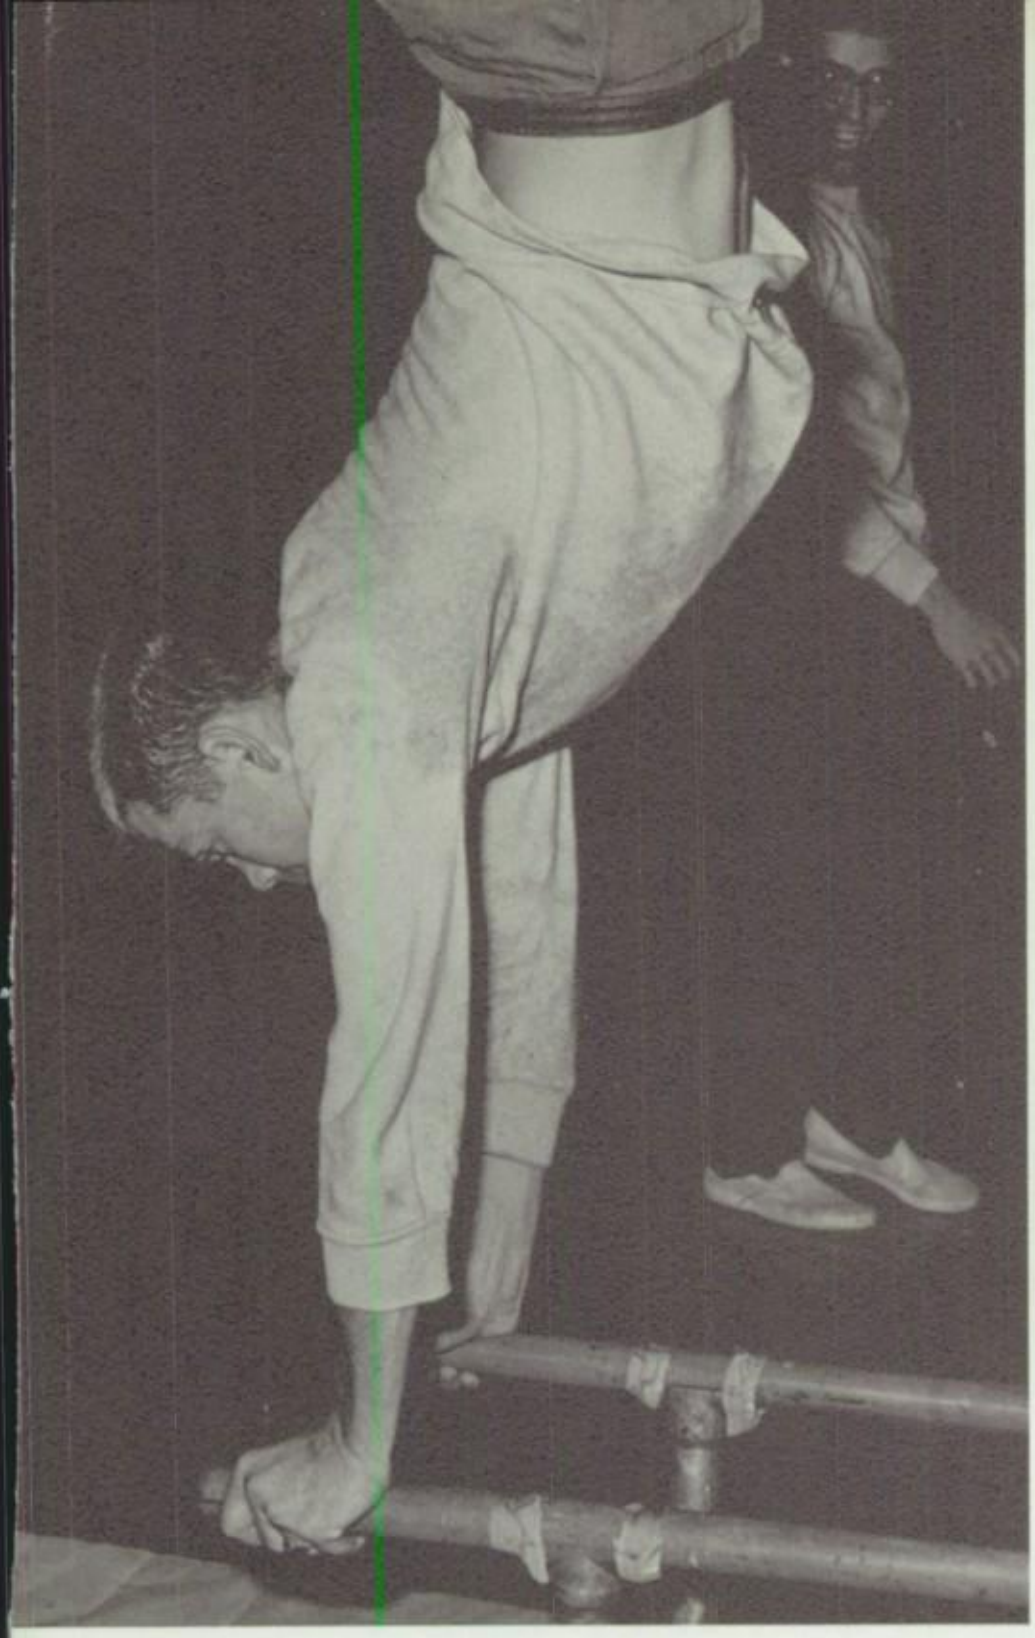
Bill Laudick flashes by with Danny Thithoff, 11, leaving a would-be tackle from Paulding far behind.

Offensive Star, Bill Laudick, turns to his defensive status as he hauls down Paulding ball carrier in the Jays' 20—6 loss to Paulding.

Ed Hoehn (with the ball) momentarily breaks into the clear in the Paulding fray.

Gym Club 'nastics

In keeping with the physical fitness program advised by President Kennedy, a gymnastic club has been added to the athletic set-up at SJH. Here Mr. Charles Laudick briefs several underclassmen on the art of the trampoline: Craig Griffis, Don Patthoff, Greg Miller, and Jim Brickner.



Demonstrating his powers of balance and co-ordination, Senior Tom Geddings gives the parallel bars the work-out.

Trampoline instructor, Mr. Charles Laudick, demonstrates a simple three-quarter backflip for the members of the Gym Club.

Jim Brickner, an apparent expert on the "bouncing machine," attempts to out-flip his instructor. (Nice try, Jim!)

The Magic

Dee Ann Westrich, SJH's lovely Baton Queen, adds a touch of glamor to the CREST. Dee Ann plans to make a career of twirling

Eight smiling seniors take time out to pose for the CREST photographer. These eight students have been active members of the St. John Band for four years: Joyce Welch, Dee Ann Westrich, Jane Reddington. SECOND ROW: Richard Dickrede, Jo Ann Hilvers, Ronald Goergens, Jane Van Pelt, and Betty Burger.

Of Music

SJH's pert and peppy reserve cheerleaders spark the Reserve Team to victory all the way. FIRST ROW: Judy Moenter, Lonna Grewe, and Mary Pathast. SECOND ROW: Jean Miller, Sue Kesler, and Judy Wiechart.

"And our team had 41 per cent fewer cavities with CREST." (Coach Bob Arnzen poses in one of his happier moods.)
